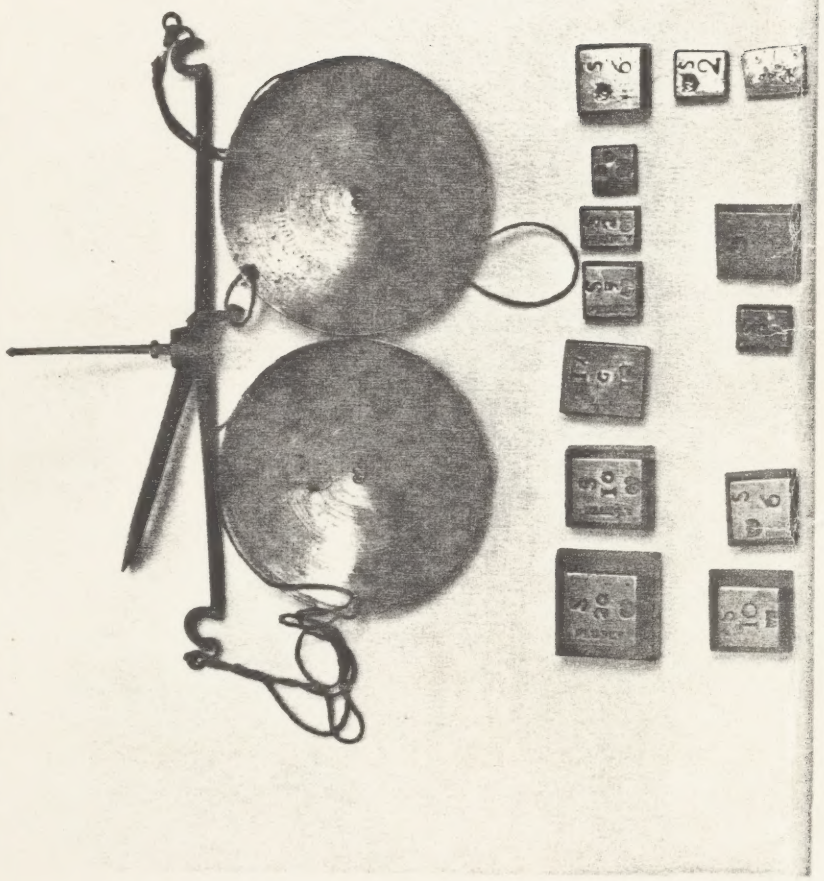
Dear Eric,

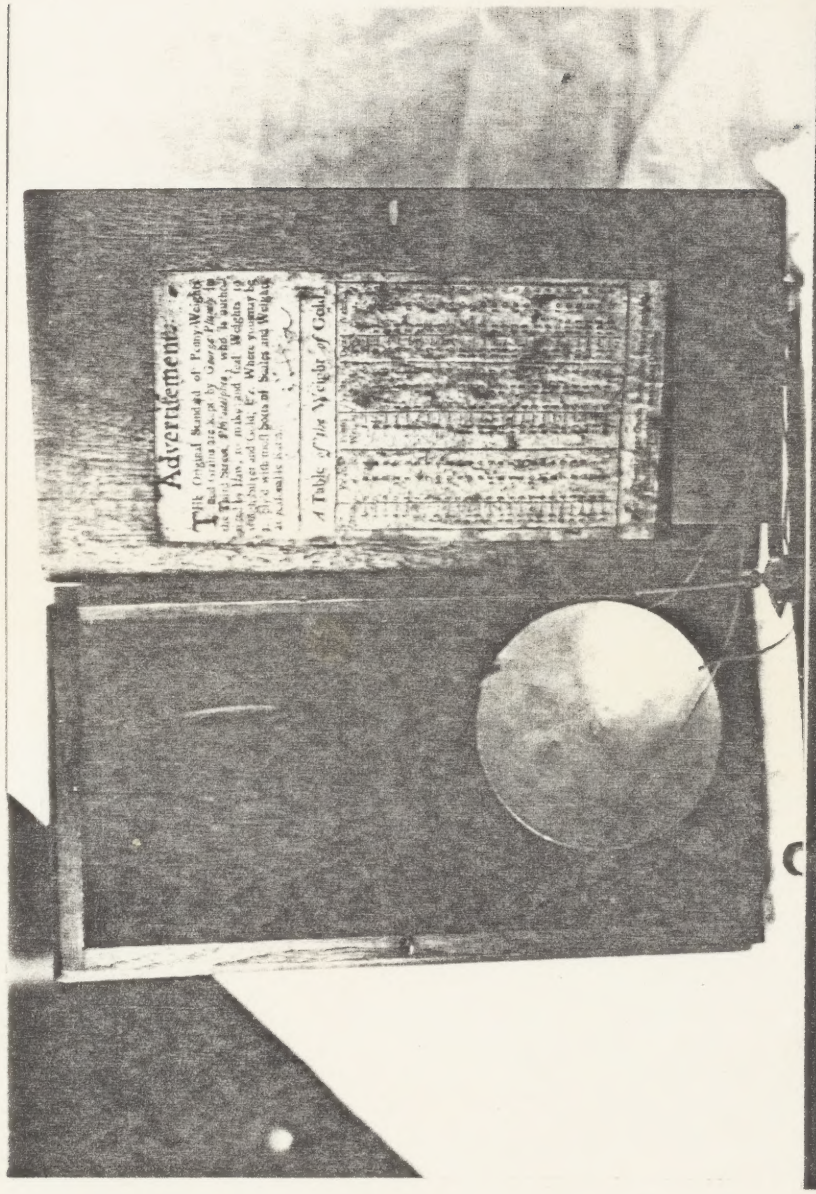
Enclosed is a copy of pictures of the Plumly Scale you wanted. We date it somewhere between 1730 to 1760 because of the price of gold.

Also you will find pictures of our "John C Dell" scale and the certificate given to him for displaying it at the Centennial in 1876. These are yours to keep. Please excuse the poor photography.

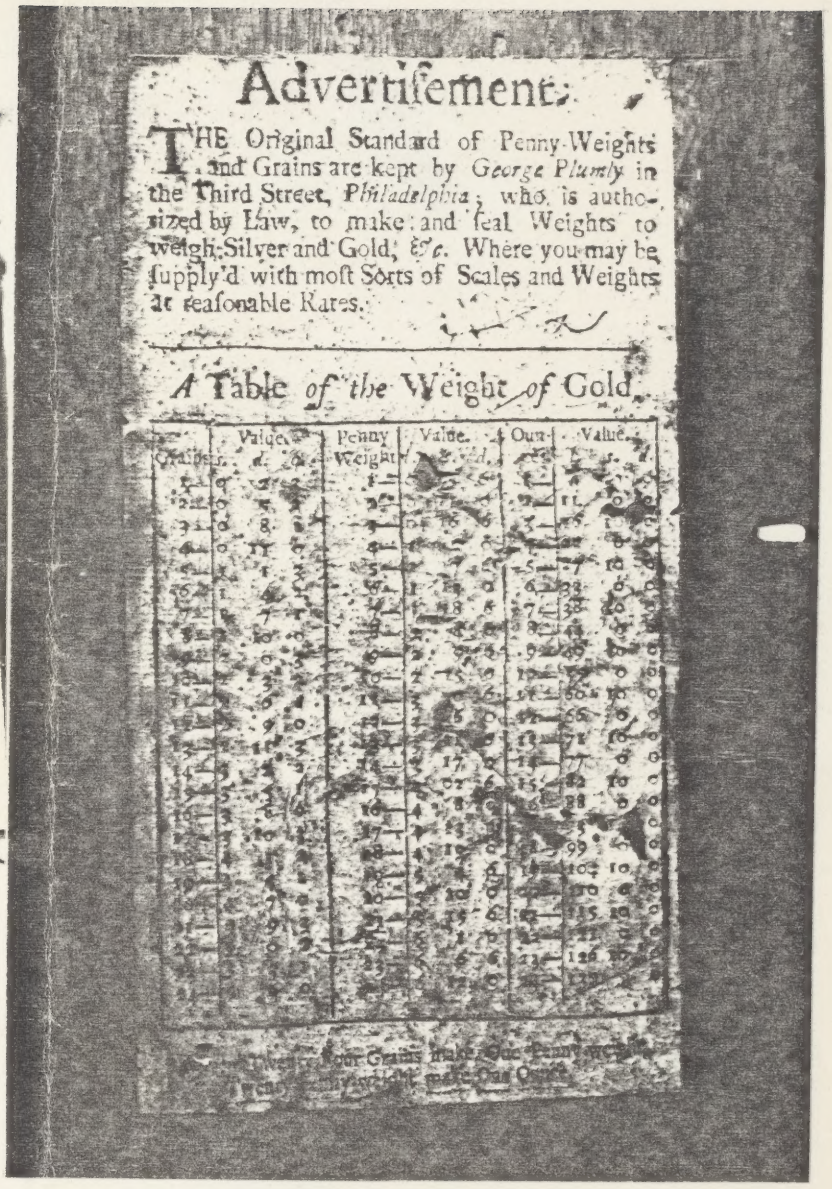
Sincerely,

Mark S. Daly
601 Pitman Ave
Pitman NJ
08071





Advertisement.
A Table of the Weight of Gold.



Advertisement.
THE Original Standard of Penny-Weights and Grains are kept by George Plumly in the Third Street, Philadelphia; who is authorized by Law, to make and seal Weights to weigh Silver and Gold, &c. Where you may be supply'd with most Sorts of Scales and Weights at reasonable Rates.
A Table of the Weight of Gold.
Value
Grains
Penny Weight
Value
Ounces
Value